New Camp Fee Tier System Explanation

As many of you know or have heard, our camp fees are subsidized by the donations of individuals who believe in a quality camp experience for every child. As the years go by and costs continue to rise, we have decided to publicize a volunteer tier payment system. As a parent you are only obligated to pay the camp fee under tier 1. If you feel that you can contribute more and pay for more of the actual cost of your child's camp you can choose tier 2 or 3. Tier 2 is a mid point amount and Tier 3 is the actual amount it costs to have your child here for camp. The quality of your child's camp experience will not be affected by the amount you pay, our only intention is to provide information. You may also choose to make a tax deductible donation outside of the tier system, please see the registration form.

DONATIONS:

You will notice a line on the registration form designated - donation. Camp Tulahead is a non-profit organization that seeks to keep its camper fees as low as possible so that those who are limited in their finances can still afford to send their children to camp. The camper fees only cover 50% of the actual cost of the camp for your child to attend and the remaining 50% we need to fundraise from those individuals interested in summer camping for children. This information is given to inform you of how camper fees work and give you the opportunity to contribute if you see fit. All donations are tax-deductible and a receipt will be mailed to you upon receiving your donation. Thank you for your kind consideration of this need.

PLEASE NOTE:

- If you do not wish for siblings to be in the same cabin, please specify under cabin pals.
- In order to register for a certain age group, the child must be turning that age in 2012.
